

Every Woman Should

Know how to use a stick shift; a plunger; understand the difference between 'don't tell a soul' and 'don't tell a soul I mean it'; know her mind; change it; have protection handy; but not too handy; use special china and special underwear for no special reason; over commit; come through; refuse to do it again; do it again; be able to discuss first and ten; have better things to do; set boundaries; go camping; grow something; dance crazy all alone; stare at the phone; get dressed in five minutes; be a princess; get over it; believe in the perfect man; get over it; read; walk; flirt; shock; listen; sing; thank God;
be single and like it; a lot; raise a child; or not; see a wrinkle and be reminded of her youth; not her age.
