CAUTIONS

(1) The translations are reproduced in the exact form they were provided by the translator. They have not been independently checked.

(2) Some are modifications in addition to being translations. For example, some have changed the response categories. If this has been done, it is indicated on the cover page of the translation. You should change the categories back to the standard CTS response categories as given in papers CTS15 and CTS17.

(3) For the above reasons, I strongly recommend that you carefully check the translation against the English versions on my website <http://pubpages.unh.edu/~mas2>. The CTS2 is in the appendix to paper CTS15, the CTSPC is paper CTS17. The CA versions of the CTS2 and CTS15 are in paper CTS24.

If you are thinking of modifying the CTS, if you send me an email in which you explain what you plan to do or send a copy of the proposed modification, I will be glad to give you my opinion on specific changes.
